

What's on at the Dorman

Schools Information Autumn 2010

September

Walk Like an Egyptian

Keystages 1&2 / Tues 28 to Thurs 30

These popular workshops are very 'hands on' and not for the fainthearted! Become an embalmer's apprentice and remove the correct organs from our mummy. Sample authentic Egyptian cuisine in the Pharaoh's kitchen and visit our exciting exhibition. Lots of blood, guts and fun guaranteed. 'Kids loved the mummy. It was fantastic that they saw a 'real one' Year 4 teacher Sacred Heart Primary, Middlesbrough.

October

Walk Like an Egyptian

Keystages 1&2 / Tues 5 to Thurs 7

These popular workshops are very 'hands on' and not for the fainthearted! Become an embalmer's apprentice and remove the correct organs from our mummy. Sample authentic Egyptian cuisine in the Pharaoh's kitchen and visit our exciting exhibition. Lots of blood, guts and fun guaranteed. 'Kids loved the mummy. It was fantastic that they saw a 'real one' Year 4 teacher Sacred Heart Primary, Middlesbrough.

November

Diwali

Keystages 1&2 / Tues 2 to Thurs 4

Discover more about the Hindu festival of Diwali and Indian culture through storytelling, crafts and role play.

Remembrance

Keystage 1 / Tues 9 to Thurs 11

This interactive workshop focuses on the meaning of 'Remembrance'. Pupils explore the war memorials outside the museum, discover the significance of the poppy and make their own to take home. Those attending on Thursday morning can take part in the 'Laying of the First Poppy' service at the cenotaph. (There is no charge for this workshop but a donation to the British Legion Poppy Appeal would be appreciated)

Forensic Apprentice

Keystage 2 / Tues 23 to Thurs 25

A crime has been committed at the museum and using the latest forensic technology pupils are invited to solve it. Lots of fun and real science.

These half-day workshops are available morning and afternoon. Maximum number per session is 30 with a £1 charge per pupil.

Further information for teachers can be found under the learning section at www.dormanmuseum.co.uk. Alternatively contact Gill or Sue on 01642 358114 or 358108, email dmeducation@middlesbrough.gov.uk.